

GLOBAL FASHION 2018

31 OCT. / 01 NOV.

What's Going On? A discourse on Fashion, Design and Sustainability.

31st OCTOBER

NATURE & CULTURE

This session will explore agendas such as, but not limited to, fashion learning from nature, fashion and human nature, fashion systems for sustainability & fashion habits and habitats. It will reference fashion's social practice, fashion making and meaning, cultures of care & fashion's identity, stories and rituals.

8.30 – 9.00am Coffee and Registration

Welcome

Dilys Williams – Director Centre for Sustainable Fashion

Opening

Mary Creagh – Member of UK Parliament

PRESENTATIONS

Kate Fletcher – Professor of Sustainability, Design, Fashion, Centre for Sustainable Fashion, London College of Fashion
Helen Crowley – Head of Sustainable Sourcing Innovation, Kering
Chair – to be confirmed

IN CONVERSATION

Katharine Hamnett – Fashion Designer

12.00pm | LUNCH

13.00pm PARALLEL SESSIONS

Break

PRESENTATIONS

Stephen Sterling – Emeritus Professor University of Plymouth
Edwina Ehrman – Senior Exhibition Curator, curator of Fashioned From Nature, Victoria & Albert Hall Museum
Praveen Nahar – Senior Faculty member in Industrial Design, National Institute of Design – India
Chair – to be confirmed

17.00 – 17.30pm | Closing Remarks

19.30pm | Gala Reception

The Gala Reception will take place at the House of St Barnabas (Soho).

The House of St Barnabas is a charity pledging to break the cycle of homelessness and social exclusion in London. It runs a social enterprise, a not-for-profit members' club, which helps to fund its Employment Academy aimed at supporting people back into lasting paid work. The House of St Barnabas is seeking to redefine the notion of a members' club, to challenge stereotypes around the idea of exclusivity and to create a different kind of membership. The club is a creative, socially conscious and vibrant space.

1st NOVEMBER

POWER & SOCIETY

This session will explore agendas such as, but not limited to, fashion design for democracy, fashion business practices for better buying, fashion education for equality, fashion as activism, fashion and politics. It will reference migration and conflict, fashion business and fashion design for sustainability strategies and a sustainable model of development.

8.30 – 9.00am Coffee and Registration

Workshop

Welcome

Isabel Cantista – Global Fashion Conference, Fast Forward Innovation

Harold Tillman – Fashion Retailer Entrepreneur and former chair of British Fashion Council

PRESENTATIONS

Otto Von Busch – Associate Professor of Integrated Design, Parsons New School of Design,
Lynda Grose – Professor, Chair of the Fashion Program at California College of the Arts
Chair – to be confirmed

PANEL DISCUSSION

Sophie Slater – Brand Director, Birdsong
Claire Bergkamp – Global Director of Sustainability & Innovation, Stella McCartney
Orsola de Castro – Founder and Creative Director, Fashion Revolution
Chair – to be confirmed

12.00pm LUNCH

13.00pm PARALLEL SESSIONS

Break

IN CONVERSATION

Frances Corner – Head of London College of Fashion, PVC, University of the Arts, London
Lola Young – Baroness Young of Hornsey
Vanessa Kingori – British Vogue Publisher
Angela McRobbie – Professor of Communications, Goldsmiths University of London
Chair – to be confirmed

17.00 – 17.30pm | Closing Remarks

ALL DAY during the two conference days

Common Room/Fringe Activities
Raw Power Movement
Live Streaming of keynotes
Installations
Bookseller

This Programme may be subject to changes due to unforeseen circumstances