

GFC2021 SPONSORSHIP POLICY

In each edition the Global Fashion Conference welcomes the involvement and sponsorship from institutions and companies representing the best and more representative values from the country where the conference will take place, especially those related to SDGs.

The Sponsorship Policy for the present edition is:

- sponsoring of 1.000 euros

GFC2021 offers the possibility of displaying your logo at the Conference website with a link to your own website + 1 free entrance.

- sponsoring of 2.000 euros

GFC2021 offers the possibility of displaying your logo at the conference website with a link to your own website + your logo will be included in all communication materials (folders, programme and documentary video to be released after the conference) + 2 free entrances

- sponsoring of 2.500 euros

GFC2021 offers the possibility of displaying your logo at the conference website with a link to your own website + your logo will be included in all communication materials (folders, programme and documentary video to be released after the conference) + 3 free entrances

- sponsoring of more than 2.500 euros

GFC2021 is available to negotiate terms of sponsorships that will exceed the 2.500 euros, including exclusivity.

Sponsorship obtained is applied to support publications (translation of book chapters, or papers for academic journals and staff work related to this aim) and diffusion on video of the contents of the conference (namely at the Youtube Channel: GFC Video Library)

The Organisational Committee

Agnieszka Rożnowska-Jasiewicz – Artist/Associate Professor, Deputy Dean - Fashion Department - Faculty of Design - Academy of Fine Arts – University of Warsaw - Poland

Aleksandra Jatczak – Fashion History Lecturer and Researcher/Assistant Professor - Fashion Department - Faculty of Design - Academy of Fine Arts – University of Warsaw - Poland

Kirsi Niinimäki – Associate Professor Design and Fashion Design/Team Leader Fashion/textiles Future, School of Arts, Design and Architecture – Aalto University – Finland

Isabel Cantista – Associate Professor Innovation & Marketing/ Researcher COMEGI - Universidade Lusíada Norte – Porto - Portugal