

SPONSORSHIP POLICY

In each edition the Global Fashion Conference welcomes the involvement and sponsorship from institutions and companies representing the best and more representative values from the country where the conference will take place, especially those related to SDGs.

The Sponsorship Policy for the present edition is:

- sponsoring of 1.000 euros

GFC2022 offers the possibility of displaying your logo at the Conference website with a link to your own website + 1 free entrance.

- sponsoring of 2.000 euros

GFC2022 offers the possibility of displaying your logo at the conference website with a link to your own website + your logo will be included in all communication materials (folders, programme and documentary video to be released after the conference) + 2 free entrances

- sponsoring of 2.500 euros

GFC2022 offers the possibility of displaying your logo at the conference website with a link to your own website + your logo will be included in all communication materials (folders, programme and documentary video to be released after the conference) + 3 free entrances

- sponsoring of more than 2.500 euros

GFC2022 is available to negotiate terms of sponsorships that will exceed the 2.500 euros, including exclusivity.

Sponsorship obtained is applied to support publications (translation of book chapters, or papers for academic journals and staff work related to this aim) and diffusion on video of the contents of the conference (namely at the Youtube Channel: GFC Video Library)

If you want to support GFC Project and get the opportunity to give a wide international visibility to your commitment towards fashion sustainability please get in touch with us at:

globalfashionconference@gmail.com